Instructor Reflection/Class Encouragement

I consider it a great privilege and opportunity to work with Local Pastors in the COSS. As I think forward to the future of the UMC, our system will be leaning more and more on the ministry of Local Pastors. I am honored to have this opportunity to interact with you. This class is manageable, and my narrative and dialogical teaching approach will make the class lively and engaging. It is not an _____ class, however if you complete your pre-class assignments and
